

Release date: Dec 23rd, 2018

Tsunami hits Lampung, Bali Remains Safe.

A tsunami has struck Pandeglang, Serang and South Lampung, Indonesia on Saturday, Dec 22nd, 2018 at 21:27 local time. National Disaster Mitigation Agency (BMKG) announced that the tsunami caused by Anak Krakatau volcano eruption.

The tsunami hit several popular tourist destinations including the Tanjung Lesung beach resort, located in the west of Java island.

Meanwhile, Bali which is situated approximately 1,400 KM from tsunami source region remain safe. Tourists in Bali are spotted enjoying their holiday in this wonderful island, especially during this festive seasons.

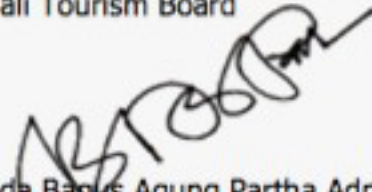

Tourists certainly could access and source official information in associated with tsunami and information about weather forecast in www.bmkg.go.id or make contact to BPBD (Regional Disaster Management Agency) at landline +62 361 251177.

Bali Government Tourism Office

A.A. Gede Yuniartha Putra, SH., MH.
Head

Bali Tourism Board

Ida Bagus Agung Partha Adnyana
Chairman